Encouragement Incorporated - Kenya, Africa

“Orientation for Team Members”

1. Money:

A. Remember to take enough cash for your in transit commute to Kenya. This means you will need enough money for food at the airports as we travel to Kenya. If we go through London, you will have the option of going in to London via the “Tube” (subway) rather than sit in the airport for 8 hours. Though the sites are free to see in London, you will need lunch money for “Fish & Chips” at a London pub and $8.00 - $12.00, or so, for a locker at the airport to store your luggage. If all of our travelers do not go into the city, the ones who stay at the airport may consent to watching our bags (free of charge, if you are nice to them). We will have lunch and see “Big Ben” and “Buckingham Palace” as walk through the historic streets of London. You can count on the expenses to spend the day in London to around $50.00

B. Once in Kenya, giving money directly to the orphans and/or other workers, etc. is strictly forbidden. Money can be given to a specific orphan and/or others, however, it must be done directly through your American Missions Tour Group Leader. This policy is to keep the members of our teams from being extorted in any way. When it is appropriate to give tips to drivers and others, the Tour Director will inform the team and collectively receive cash for these purposes. (Tips for all meals while in Kenya are included in your registration fee.) Tips for laundry and other personal services while staying at the Encouragement Center is appropriate. Feel free to speak to your Tour Director concerning the proper amounts.

C. Many times members of a Mission Team may feel impressed to “sponsor” an orphan or provide other financial support. This is acceptable and even encouraged, but it must be done through the proper channel of Encouragement Inc. - USA. If you have any questions, feel free to speak to your Tour Director.

2. Lifestyle Issues:

A. While on this trip, the use of alcohol, tobacco, and drugs, other than prescription drugs, are strictly forbidden by all Team Members. Magazines and music, other than Christian magazines and CD’s, are to not be taken.

B. Displaying a positive attitude in behavior and speech is a must for all to have a pleasant experience and is the Christian model we want to reflect to the people of Kenya. It is best to be “careful” not to display body language of “shock” and “feelings of pity” while working with these less fortunate people in their life situations. Showing Christian “love and compassion” is appropriate, but projecting an attitude of “pity” is not productive and healthy for them. If you have any questions concerning what is appropriate in various situations, feel free to speak to the Team Director privately.

C. Clothing is to be moderate. Moderate shorts are acceptable for working during the day. Girls are not to bring “string tops” or “tank tops.” T-Shirt are best. A simple dress is the suggested wear for the girls during Sunday church services. During the outdoor crusades during weekday, daytime wear is acceptable.

3. Beliefs, Material, and Teaching Materials:

A. Because we are working with a variety of evangelical denominations in Kenya, it is important that the “teaching, preaching, and conversations” even around the dinner tables, remain “inclusive” of “all” evangelical churches teachings. Our Mission Teams many times will consist of people from a variety of evangelical churches. Essential doctrines like: Salvation by grace through faith, the Deity of Jesus Christ, and the infallible Word of God, are never compromised. It is best to stay in the “middle of the road” doctrinally while teaching and preaching in Kenya. Extreme and any distinctive denominational teaching is to be left out. If you are not sure of whether the content of your teaching and preaching materials fits the above criteria, it is important that you check with the Missions Team Director prior to communicating and disbursing any questionable materials. Keep in mind that Encouragement Incorporated endorses the Statement of Faith used by The National Association of Evangelicals of America and can be viewed on their website.

4. Recruitment of Staff & Volunteers:

It is important that ONLY the Mission Team Director, or his delegate, interview and hire the “day workers.” Team members have no authority to make promises, plans, or provide supervision to the Kenyans unless asked to do so by the Mission Team Director. Too many hands in the “process” (pot) can cause frustration and sometimes great harm. Our experience has been that the Kenyans will many times say “you promised” when no promise was ever made. When they simply “discuss” something with a person, they think because a person may have said “I will think about that,” that this statement was a “promise.” You can help us by limiting your conversations with the Kenyans to be only “general” conversations. It is best to refer them directly to the Mission Team Director when they have “ideas” or “future projects” to discuss.

5. Underage Team Members:

Any child under the age of 18 not traveling with a parent must have the following:

- A. Current passport.
- B. Proper Visa stamp prior to going to the airport to leave.
- C. “EI Waiver of Liability” signed by parents.
- D. “Emergency Medical Treatment” form complete with all necessary signatures.

6. Communicating with Kenyans.:

- A. Giving out of your home address, telephone numbers, and e-mail addresses to Kenyans is strictly forbidden. This policy is in concern for your own safety and limits solicitations.
- B. It is our policy to have ONLY personnel from our USA office ever contact our visiting quests and team members.

I CONFIRM THAT I am the full age of 18 years and I have read and understood the Agreement prior to signing it and I agree that the Agreement will be binding upon my heirs, next-of-kin, executors, administrators and successors. I am aware that by signing this Agreement I am releasing and waiving certain legal rights, including the right to sue and to be awarded potentially substantial damages, which for my heirs, next-of-kin, executors, administrators and assigns have or may have against the Releases.
